

seen

1 Ulf Moritz Signature | Marburger Tapetenfabrik

Amsterdam-based German designer Ulf Moritz is no stranger to textile and wallpaper design and has again teamed up with Marburg to create the Ulf Moritz Signature wallpaper collection: a luxurious feel fashioned on simple patterns and rich in colour. www.marburg.com

2 Kanji | Nobilis Paris

Part of the Mosaic collection and available in three colours, Kanji is an embroidered curtain fabric imitating the ornate lines and designs of Japanese calligraphy. www.nobilis.fr

3 Ishi | Saum & Viebahn

The Ishi drape fabric, with its intricate stitching and ability to fool the eye to believe it was sewn together from multiple pieces, is visually striking especially in the light grey option, one of five colour choices. www.saum-und-viebahn.de

4 Design 219 | Sabine Röhse

Super-talented German textile designer Sabine Röhse offers an eclectic mix of designs featuring abstract graphic forms and digitally created patterns that are simple yet innovative. www.sabineroehse.com

5 Clark | Vescom

Through its multilayered small horizontal and square design, the Clark is able to create a three dimensional textured wall surface look that is subtle yet eye catching. www.vescom.com

6 East Village Jaune | Texdecor

The East Village Jaune drape fabric was designed by Texdecor's modern Camengo design team. A raised embroidered line incorporating red square patterns on a yellow textile creates intriguing geometrical shapes. www.camengo.fr